A Tale of Two Cities Media Project

Purpose: To give the class a glimpse into what A Tale of Two Cities was about. Make sure you discuss fully the plot, the major characters, and the themes of the story. How your group develops the final project is entirely up to you. The more details there are and the more creative it is, the better your grade will be. This is a GROUP extra credit project – NOT an individual project. Each group member MUST participate to be considered eligible to receive possible extra credit points.

A group consists of no less than 3 people and no more than 5 people. All participants MUST be present and speak in the video!!!!

Presentation Due Date: Friday, May 17, 2012.
Presentation Dates: Monday, May 21 through Wednesday, May 24.

You will be graded on:
1. Originality—your project is unique your group.
2. Creativity—your project stands out and is memorable.
3. Neatness—your project is presented well, shows time and care, and is not messy.
4. Accuracy—your project follows the novel’s story elements without error.

Choose from one of the following project ideas:
1. Talk Show: Write a script, come up with a show name, and interview a panel of characters. (a student created movie poster MUST accompany the video as well)
2. Recreate a Scene: Write a script, find costumes, and act out a pivotal scene from the story. (a student created movie poster MUST accompany the video as well)
3. Movie Trailer: Create a movie trailer that advertises the book, highlighting the main characters and main plot points. (a student created movie poster MUST accompany the video as well)

*If your group creates their own idea, describe your proposed project to the teacher for approval.
A video presentation is required for grading purposes.
You will need to verify that your video formatting is compatible with MY computer. If it is not and cannot be viewed, you will not receive the EXTRA credit!! (This is your group’s responsibility, not mine.)

Teacher Approval: ______________________________
Teacher signature required

This will be a major grade EXTRA CREDIT assignment only. It will not replace a grade. It will serve only as a chance to improve your grade.